

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. "anyone"	2. "noone"	3. "women and men"	4. "children"
Line Numbers:	Line Numbers:	Line Numbers:	Line Numbers:
5. What do you think is the main difference between those people who are referred to in the singular and those who are referred to in the plural?

1. In each box at the top, write notes to describe the people in the "pretty how town" and comment on what they seem to be like. Note a line or lines from the poem that support your descriptions. Then, in the box at the bottom, write notes to answer the question. (8 points each)

Write the letter of the best answer. (6 points each)

- _____ 2. In "anyone lived in a pretty how town, " the townspeople least consider "anyone" to be
- A. inferior.
 - B. strange.
 - C. likeable.
 - D. undignified.
- _____ 3. In "anyone lived in a pretty how town, " "noone" expresses her love for "anyone" by
- A. quietly pining away for him.
 - B. telling others about her feelings.
 - C. sharing the ups and downs of his life.
 - D. teaching others to care for him the way she does.

- _____ 4. In "anyone lived in a pretty how town," the townspeople view "anyone" and "noone" as their
- A. betters.
 - B. equals.
 - C. inferiors.
 - D. own children.
- _____ 5. Line 7 of "anyone lived in a pretty how town" suggests that the townspeople lead
- A. long lives.
 - B. exciting lives.
 - C. ordinary lives.
 - D. meaningful lives.
- _____ 6. Lines 9 and 10 of "anyone lived in a pretty how town" suggest that those townspeople with insight into human nature include
- A. all of the children.
 - B. some of the children.
 - C. only the oldest children.
 - D. only "anyone" and "noone."
- _____ 7. When "anyone" dies, the townspeople bury him
- A. with regret.
 - B. with sorrow.
 - C. with affection.
 - D. without fanfare.
- _____ 8. The refrains in lines 3, 11, and 34 in "anyone lived in a pretty how town" communicate a sense of
- A. the present.
 - B. time passing.
 - C. one single moment in time.
 - D. the final moment in "anyone's" life.

Answer the following question based on your understanding of the poems. Write your answer on a separate sheet of paper. (15 points)

9. In "anyone lived in a pretty how town," what impact does "anyone" have on most of the townspeople? How is it different from his impact on "noone"? Support your answer with details from the poem.