

Read pages 229–240 of “St. Lucy’s Home for Girls Raised by Wolves” (from “Stage 2: After a time, your students realize that they must work” to “But you could tell they were pleased”) and answer the following questions:

1. What do we learn about the narrator in this excerpt? Use details from the text to support your response.
2. What specific details about their behavior does Russell use to describe Mirabella’s and Jeanette’s places in the pack?
3. How does Claudette describe her place in the pack?
4. What tone does Claudette use in her descriptions of Mirabella’s behavior?
