

11.1.2 Mid-Unit Assessment

Text-Based Response

Your Task: Rely on your reading and analysis of Hamlet to write a well-developed response to the following prompt:

Select one of Hamlet's first three soliloquies. In this soliloquy, how does Shakespeare develop Hamlet's character in relation to other characters? Use evidence from the play to support your answer.

Your response will be assessed using the 11.1.2 Mid-Unit Text Analysis Rubric.

Guidelines

Be sure to:

- Closely read the prompt
- Organize your ideas and evidence
- Develop a claim that responds directly to all parts of the prompt
- Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support your analysis
- Follow the conventions of standard written English

CCSS: RL.11-12.3, W.11-12.2.a, b, f, W.11-12.9.a, L.11-12.1, L.11-12.2

Commentary on the Task:

This task measures RL.11-12.3 because it demands that students:

- Analyze the impact of the author's choices regarding how to develop and relate elements of a story or drama (e.g., where a story is set, how the action is ordered, how the characters are introduced and developed).

This task measures W.11-12.2.a, b, f because it demands that students:

- Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas, concepts, and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content.
 - Introduce a topic; organize complex ideas, concepts, and information so that each new element builds on that which precedes it to create a unified whole; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., figures, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.
 - Develop the topic thoroughly by selecting the most significant and relevant facts, extended definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples appropriate to the audience's knowledge of the topic.
 - Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation presented (e.g., articulating implications or the significance of the topic).

This task measures W.11-12.9.a because it demands that students:

- Draw evidence from literary texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.

This task measures L.11-12.1 because it demands that students:

- Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.

This task measures L.11-12.2 because it demands that students:

- Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.
