

Read pages 48-50 from Chapter 3 of Virginia Woolf's A Room of One's Own (from "Be that as it may, I could not help thinking" to "where the omnibuses now stop outside the Elephant and Castle").

1. List important events in the life of Judith Shakespeare.
2. On page 49, how did men respond when Judith said she wanted to act?
3. What words describe the manager's response to Judith's request?
4. What kind of man was the manager?
5. Paraphrase the sentence on pages 49–50: "Yet her genius was for fiction and lusted to feed abundantly upon the lives of men and women and the study of their ways."
