Here is an example of what a Chicago-style Bibliography page typically looks like. Using standard formats for your entries enhances your credibility with academic readers, and alphabetizing your list helps fellow researchers quickly locate the sources that you refer to in the body of your text. For more formats & source types, visit

http://www.dianahacker.com/resdoc/ or, for access to the full Chicago Manual of Style online (16th edition), visit z.umn.edu/chicagostyle (access provided by University of Minnesota Libraries).

Every entry begins flush left; additional lines are indented 0.5 from the left margin.	5"	Label your page "Bibliography" in the center of the first line.	Chicago-style Bibliographies have or inch margins all around. Single-space each entry and double-space betwee entries, unless your instructor prefer double-spacing throughout. Entries a	ce en s are
